Quarter 3 & 4, Semester 2 to be determined

It is highly recommended that teachers and administrators reach agreement on SLOs.

Letting the District set one's target for every student, when no agreement is reached usually results in less than satisfactory outcomes.

How do you know if this occurs? First, you should have a conversation with your administrator. If this does not result in resolution and after presenting rationales, consider adjusting targets. Remember if the District sets targets, all students will have the same target.

The District's APPR team emails teachers who have not gotten approval. While the emails are somewhat unclear, a message that says, "revision required" is an unambiguous signal that agreement has not been reached. If no further action is taken to reach approval, it is likely that over the following months, and as late as August, the District will impose SLO targets. Under NYS Education Law 3012-d the District has that authority.

Please take advantage of attending the SLO support sessions that were attached to the District email. If you still have questions, please contact the RTA Office.
